DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 2-5, 13, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Regarding claim 13, the original disclosure does not provide sufficient support in the following claimed subject matter of corrugating the paper sheet at a temperature of 130-170C, but does disclose corrugating it at a temperature of 130-160C(paragraph [0049]). Therefore, the corrugating temperature range of 160-170C has not been described in the original disclosure. The original disclosure does not provide sufficient support for bonding the liner to the corrugated paper within 5 minutes of corrugation, but rather discloses bonding them together as the corrugated material exits the corrugation rollers(paragraph 0032]). The original disclosure does not provide sufficient support for the liner laminate comprising a paper layer, a metallized layer, and a polyester film, but rather discloses a paper layer and a metallized polyester film. Therefore the original disclosure does not disclose a separate metal layer or application of the metal layer to the paper layer rather than to the polyester layer. The original disclosure does not provide sufficient support for a melting point for the polyester film used in the process.

The original disclosure does not provide sufficient support for the opposed sides of the polyester layer each being treated by one of chemical treatment and corona treatment.

The original disclosure does disclose treating both sides with chemical treatment or treating the side opposite the metallized side with corona or chemical treatment. The original disclosure does not provide sufficient support for the pre-treatment imparting an increased melting point to the polyester film.

Regarding claim 14, the original disclosure does not disclose joining the corrugated paper and the liner together within 60 seconds of corrugating.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 3-5, it is unclear whether the "paper sheet" of the claims is the "corrugated paper sheet" of claim 13 as there are two paper layers in the product of claim 13.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments are based substantially on limitations not totally supported by the original disclosure. Therefore, they are not germane to the patentability of the claimed subject matter.

Regarding applicant's argument that the specification discloses treating both sides of the polyester film, examiner agrees the specification discloses chemically treating both sides of the film. However, this does not indicate the original disclosure discloses corona treating both sides of the film, nor does it disclose performing one treatment to one side and a different treatment to the other side.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
